

There is no other radio station that has the positive influence, Christian music, and faith-based news stories on our local radio station. It is very powerful to hear our 5 and 8 year old singing songs they know by heart from this radio station. I feel strongly it is important to give them this solid foundation.